

I support Net Neutrality. Internet service should be considered a utility just like electric and natural gas services. It is a necessity today!